

Passover University & Marketplace at Temple Aliyah

Sunday, March 18th, 11:30am – 1:30pm

11:30am -- Passover Marketplace Opens in the Atrium/Front Lobby

Grab a Chametz Lunch-to-Go and browse our selection of Haggadot for your Seder and then head off to a Passover University course of your choice!

PASSOVER UNIVERSITY SESSION 1

11:45 – 12:30: Course Selections:

Get your feather, get your spoon, get your candle & GO!

Leaders: Alisa Levine & Debbi Fendell

Location: Back end of Social Hall/Annex

This 45 minute workshop will simulate a BIDIKAT HAMEZ – a timeless tradition that takes families on a HUNT to find breadcrumbs hidden around. Get ready to “rid your home and your mind” of crumbs that hang around before Passover this year. After searching in teams around our social hall, families will decorate wooden spoons to use at home, and leave with a candle, a feather, a spoon, and everything necessary to practice this fun and meaningful tradition at home!

It's Never Too Late, But It's Worth Starting Now:

Leader: Rabbi Perkins

Location: Kehillah Room

In this 45 minute workshop you will have the opportunity to learn how to plan, conduct and engage others to participate in a stimulating, inspiring seder -- with our Master Teacher -- Ma'ar Datre - Rabbi Perkins!

Seder Success:

Leader: Cantor Gloth

Location: Library

New and creative ways to make your seders fun and accessible for children, adults, guests and YOU!

Bringing Social Justice to your Seder Table!

Leader: David Solkowitz Location: Youth Lounge

Wonder what it's like to be HUNGRY on Passover? In partnership with JCRC curriculum, this workshop will give grades 6-8 grade food for thought - in lieu of food - on how we can address the crisis of Hunger in America

Only 4? How the 4 Children of the Haggadah Change over Time

Leader: Devora Rohr

Location: Board Room

What do these illustrations have in common? They are artist's renderings of the 4 types of children to whom the Haggadah instructs parents to tell the story of Exodus. Explore the meanings of the Chacham, Rasha, Tam and She'eno Yode'ay Lish'ol as they've been imagined by artists and come up with your own definitions. Readers of all ages are welcome; artistic skill not a prerequisite!

12:30 pm -- Passover Marketplace Re-Opens in the Foyer/Front Lobby!

Grab a Chametz Dessert-to-Go and browse our selection of Haggadot for your Seder - last call before sale closes - then head off to a Passover University course of your choice!

PASSOVER UNIVERSITY SESSION 2

12:45 – 1:30 - Course Selections:

Is it Kosher for Passover, or is it Chametz?

Leader: David Solkowitz

Location: Big Kitchen & Social Hall

In this 45 minute workshop, participants will bake delicious Passover desserts. While they are baking, they will receive guidelines on how to “kasher a kitchen” and discuss why and how “in every generation” we are still commanded to eat Matzah (or matzah meal) products! Once desserts are out of the oven, there will be a taste testing. Recipes and Kashering guidelines go home with participants.

The Origin and Development of the “Four Questions” -- and What That Teaches Us about The Questions We Should Be Asking Ourselves This Year

Leader: Rabbi Perkins

Location: Kehillah Room

Seder Success!

Leader: Cantor Gloth

Location: Library

New and creative ways to make your seders fun and accessible for children, adults, guests and YOU! with Cantor Gloth

Afiko-WHAT?!

Leader: Alisa Levine

Location: Board Room

In this 45 minute workshop, learn the origin and magic of hiding, seeking, and finding the Afikomen at the seder. Participants will make and take home a customize Afikomen holder and use

For more information contact Alisa Levine