

UPCOMING Events

< June

Saturday, June 6

1664 Central Avenue, Needham, MA

Growing Up in a Southern Jewish Community

12:30 - 1:30 PM

Join us for an enlightening event exploring a personal family history rooted in Augusta, Georgia, during the Jim Crow era, and the rich experiences of Jewish-American life through the 20th century. Discover the remarkable story of Dr. Harvey Levy's family and their journey through history.

Sunday, June 7

1664 Central Avenue, Needham, MA

Journey Into American Jewish Music

10:00 - 11:30 AM

Join Hal Slifer on Chagigah Radio for a lively musical celebration of Jewish heritage. Enjoy songs from iconic Jewish artists, rare videos, stories, and audience participation. This 60-minute program features pop, Klezmer, and Yiddish music, filled with laughter and nostalgia. Don't miss this joyful tribute to Jewish music and memories!

Sunday, June 14th

1664 Central Avenue, Needham, MA

Cultivating Heritage Through Your Garden

TBD

Join local Food Garden educator Safiyat Hamiss for a unique blend of storytelling and gardening, where we explore the significance of meaningful plants, share family food traditions, and learn to plan a small garden inspired by your own background. Perfect for beginners and anyone interested in growing, cooking, and connecting through culture.